Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .an estimated rate of 50 cents per man per day. six days per week. In the lines offered regularly by Dunwoody in straight trade training, the men will go on the regular basis of $3 entrance fee for resident students and no tuition, and for nonresident students will follow the schedule of tuition sent in recently to the central office. 3. The Dunwoody will run ungraded classes, try-out courses in mechanical lines, and are willing to try some simple commercial work of a try-out nature. At the present time they are reducing their force preparing to closing in the summer, hence the sooner definite arrangements can be made with them the better it will be for all concerned. Men are being placed at Dunwoody Institute for training in accordance with these arrangements and at fees in accordance with paragraphs numbered III and IV above. The Chairman. The sundry civil bill as it passd the House, or the bill that failed in the last Congress, carried this provision: Vocational rehabilitation: For an additional amount for carrying out the provisions of the act entitled An act to provide for the vocational rehabilitation and return to civil employment of disabled persons discharged from the military or naval forces of the United States, and for other purposes, approved June 27, 1918, including personal services in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, printing and binding to be done at the Government Printing Office, law books, books of reference, and periodicals, $2,000,000,...
