Inspired by Jethro's advice to Moses in Exodus 18:21, Hermann Schachtschneider presents a vision and plan to re-instill Christian values in our government by encouraging American Christians not only to vote, but to field candidates and set the political agenda. This practical strategy can be applied to RETAKE YOUR CITY FOR CHRIST, to RETAKE YOUR STATE FOR CHRIST, and to RETAKE AMERICA FOR CHRIST. This could become the American Spring you've heard others wishing for, and thanks to the US Constitution, our revolution can be bloodless, quick, and a testament to Christian love. This document is a 34 page essay. The majority of Americans call themselves Christians. But if you look at the laws, policies, and regulations that come out of OUR government, they can seem surprisingly unchristian. Somehow, between the votes of the people and the actions of our elected officials, somewhere between the collection of taxes and the administration of our government, somehow in the complex workings of local, state and federal politics, the needs and wishes of the American people are going unnoticed and unfulfilled. Our government is not working for us, and often seems to be working against us and against some of the principles that we hold most dear. The two dominant political parties have let us down. We can do better. In this essay, Hermann Schachtschneider offers a simple plan for Christians to retake America, and restore Christian values to our government at all levels - local, state and federal. As he tells it, launching our own nationwide political movement could be as easy as wearing an American flag lapel pin to church, talking to some friends, and joining...
